Three times champion in the Tiny Tots and Juniors from Belmont Primary, Jaquan Burgess, posing with Three-time Mr. Caribbean, Darrem Charles, of Trinidad and Tobago at Lester Vaughan School last night.

Burgess thrilled a capacity audience at the Lester Vaughan School with a confident posing routine as he displayed his physique which is well-toned, especially his chest and back, which are quite developed for his age.

Charles personally presented two tickets to the 11-year-old for tonight's Darcy Beckles Classic at the Lloyd Erskine Sandiford Centre where both will make guest appearances that are sure to captivate bodybuilding fans.

It will be Charles' first appearance on stage here in about 15 years. (KB)
